Tier 1 High Net-Worth Investors Info

MediVisas works closely with Henderson Rowe, an investment advisory and discretionary management service dedicated to providing wealthy individuals, their families, trusts and businesses with exceptional advice.

Henderson Rowe creates and manages direct, low cost, global portfolios of shares, ETFs, commodities, bonds and funds. For existing clients their goals are to:

- Make returns according to each clients determined strategy
- Ensure a high level of service that only small private firms usually provide
- Secure the highest degree of asset custody, using global custodians
- Give independent, comprehensive and unbiased advice
- Maintain transparent and competitive fees Henderson Rowe have a wealth of expertise in the very assets Investor Visas have to incorporate, employing proprietary methods of investment analysis which give their clients an edge over more cumbersome competitors. In the context of Investor Visas their specialization and approach to investment have the following specific benefits:
 - Only deal in liquid and direct stock which means assets are always accessible and visa requirements are fulfilled.
 - Have the ability to tailor each investor's portfolio to their own needs following comprehensive discussions with you, the client and MediVisas.
 - Have an excellent reporting system that keeps clients up to date with their portfolios day to day and allows them to maintain an on-going oversight to insure immigration criteria are always met.
 - Build an investment team around the client and do not push individuals into generic products therefore costs are kept down and portfolios are transparent. If you are thinking about investing in the UK and wish to discuss your matter further, please contact chris.fysh@medivisas.com
